H. H. CULVER TELLS OF CAMPAIGN TO OWN YOUR HOME

State Chairman of Drive Is Speaker at Luncheon of Local Realty Board

Harry H. Culver, one of the founders of Culver City and state chairman of the Own-Your-Own-Home campaign, was the principal speaker yesterday noon in the Citizens' building at the semi-monthly luncheon of the Glendale Realty board.

"There is a subtle difference between the sale of lots for a subdivision and the sale of lots for homes," declared Mr. Culver. "Deep down in every heart is a longing for a home. The home is the most sacred institution in the world. Our customer, when he buys, is buying a home. The man who is happy in his home is going to prove to be the greatest asset in the building of a town."

"Do unto others as you would have others do unto you" is the motto which permeates the Culver organization, according to Mr. Culver. He said that he had seen 5000 salesmen come to work and that those who had remained any length of time had been those who had developed confidence in the sincerity and integrity of the company for which they were working.

Urges Work for Campaign

Mr. Culver expressed a wish that sixty realty boards in the state of California would all "get on the firing line" and help put over the Own-Your-Own-Home campaign to be launched March 19, which, he declared, would be a benefit to every one.

"The success of this thing depends upon salesmanship," he asserted, "and salesmanship depends upon work."

Eighty per cent of the crimes and eighty per cent of the divorces in Los Angeles come from apartment houses, according to Mr. Culver, who stated that whenever a community was able to attract a family from the congestion and confusion of a city it was not only helping that family on its way to success, but was performing a task for the benefit of humanity.

"Resourcefulness is absolutely essential to success in any line of endeavor," declared Mr. Culver. "One of the most valuable assets in the (Continued on Page 8)

Girls of Intermediate School Visit Factories

A party of fifty-four girls from the cooking classes of the Intermediate school, accompanied by Miss Lula M. Woodridge, supervisor of domestic science in the city schools, Miss Vera Sinclair and Miss Lucetta Potter, teachers of the Intermediate, were taken to Los Angeles by special train Wednesday noon and spent a very interesting two hours at Bishop's factory. They were conducted through by a special guide, who explained everything with care, showing them the different departments, where the cookies, crackers and candies are made. They were very liberal with their samples, also.

One thing especially interesting was the evolution of the cacao bean, which they observed from the bean stage through all the different processes that finally finished with a chocolate bar. They were each given a sample bar of this.

At 3 o'clock they continued their search for practical knowledge and arrived at Sperry's flour mills. This was equally interesting and they watched the wheat from the grain, through every stage until it was baked into bread.

They reached Glendale at 5 p. m., exceedingly tired as the factories are so large that walking through was an undertaking, but both the children and teachers felt well paid for the trip, they say.

Reception and Tea to Honor Miss Pankhurst

A reception and afternoon tea is to be extended at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow to Miss Christabel Pankhurst by the representatives of the various women's civic organizations and clubs at the headquarters of the Business and Professional Women's Club, under whose auspices she is to lecture tomorrow night at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

Mrs. Margaret Biggs, president of the organization has also issued a general invitation to as many of the Business Women's Club members who are at leisure at that time to attend this social gathering and meet Miss Pankhurst.

Miss Alma Zeiger, a member of the club, will give several piano numbers preceding the lecture by Miss Pankhurst.

Dollar Day Is Big Success; Merchants Pleased at Service

With hundreds of shoppers in attendance at Glendale's first dollar day—the merchants of this city are more than pleased at noon today with the business already done and prospects for a big afternoon's trade.

As advertised in The Glendale Evening News, the many free specials and extraordinarily low prices are pulling the people downtown. In addition to the pennants, window cards, price tags and other accessories furnished by The Glendale Evening News' merchandising service, six page Dollar Day circulars were distributed to homes not otherwise reached, both in Glendale, La Canada, Montrose, La Cresenta and Tujunga.

"Dollar Bill" made his appearance, as per schedule and was none other than Frank H. Pilling, the genial secretary of the Glendale Merchants' Credit Association. Here is how he gave away six crisp dollar bills between 10 and 12 a. m.

BY FRANK H. PILLING.

Wandering into the Monarch Auto Supply Company's store at 10:55 a. m., H. M. Butts cheerily cried, "So you are 'Dollar Bill.'" He got the first prize.

At 11:15 in Webb's store Phoebe Casagrande of 536 West Salem street identified me as "Dollar Bill."

Ten minutes later Mrs. W. A. Willis, of 823 North Brand boulevard, met me in the Irish Linen store and got the Dollar Bill.

That made me feel like a philanthropist. Half of my prize money was gone. Here is how the balance went in one, two, three order.

Mrs. Alice Traver, of 537 East Colorado boulevard, identified me while I was in Gordon's store, at 11:30.

Mrs. R. Kingsburg, of 102-A East Broadway, won her Dollar Bill in the Buster Brown Shoe store at 11:35.

And Robert Ansley, of 508 Burdett street, got the last Dollar Bill at 11:45, in Roberts & Echols.

Several other stores were visited.

The Vogels, by making a clean sweep of their three game series with the Bullards, jumped from fifth to third place and are now but a game and a half behind the leaders. "The Three Musketeers from San Fernando," with Royals as their main cog, are going better than at any time during the season's play, having won their last six games.

Largest Total Score

Of last night's matches the Lawrences made the largest total score, their mark being 1466. Their lead was only by a margin of nine pins, however, as the Vogels chalked up a total of 1457. The other squads finished in the following order:

MUNICIPAL PAGEANT IN MAY IS INDORSED BY MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Suggestion of Harry Girard To Be Carried Out and Verdugo Woodlands May be Site Chosen

Glendale will stage a municipal pageant in May.

Both Mrs. Dora Gibson and Z. Earl Meeker of the Glendale Union high school music department this morning heartily indorsed the project. They believe Harry Girard's suggestion for a May Festival is a splendid one and capable of bringing credit to Glendale.

Mrs. Gibson is in favor of staging a nature fantasy in the beautiful natural setting of Verdugo Woodlands. She called attention to the fact that the erection of a stage or grandstand there would be but a small matter and one which could easily be arranged by the community.

The subject for such a pageant has not yet been suggested, but it is likely that the progress of Glendale is not in favor of anything of a frivolous nature because he has found that better work may be secured for a theme which is a real inspiration. So far he has not been able to find a suitable scenario ready made.

Offering a prize to the student writing an acceptable pageant scenario has been suggested, Mrs. Gibson laughingly stated her belief that the smartest children in the world were right here at Glendale Union high school. Mr. Meeker also believes that there is enough talent in the institution to prepare a plot worthy of production. He asserted that a suitable scenario would be worth $50 or so as a boost to the town.

Mrs. Gibson feels that western schools make a mistake in not paying more attention to choral work as the students carry their voices around with them all of their lives.

While the time for the preparation of such a pageant is somewhat limited, Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Meeker both believe that something of a simple nature could be staged with the intention of making the affair more elaborate next year when the schools might begin their preparation early in the fall.

MADALYNNE OBENCHAIN ON STAND IN OWN DEFENSE

LOS ANGELES, March 9.—"Mrs. Obenchain, take the stand." With these words Jud Rush, chief defense counsel, today brought the trial of Madalynne Obenchain, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, to a dramatic climax. Mrs. Obenchain, a trifle nervous and before one of the largest crowds that ever filled a Los Angeles courtroom, took the witness chair and began the telling of her own complete story for the first time. A few minutes before she went on the stand Mrs. Obenchain predicted that her testimony would win her acquittal. Refreshing her memory by referring to her little red-covered diary, she related her ill-fated romance with the man she is alleged to have conspired to kill, J. Belton Kennedy. She began her testimony by telling of how she broke with Kennedy and demanded that he return to her the letters she had written to him. After establishing the fact that Mrs. Obenchain knew Kennedy in his life time, Rush showed her an envelope. It was the envelope in which she returned to Kennedy the letters he had written her and his pictures when they separated in May, 1920. On the envelope was written by Mrs. Obenchain, the words: "If you really believe I have been untruthful to you, I am glad you gave up. When faith is destroyed the rest soon leaves. I want my letters and pictures." After she sent this note, Mrs. Obenchain testified, she never received her letters from Kennedy and did not hear from him or see him during the rest of the year 1920. She said she went to Chicago

At the regular meeting of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Association, of which Mrs. John Robert White is president, and which was held yesterday afternoon in the cafeteria of the intermediate school, reports of the presidents of the various associations were given and it was also decided in order that the children of the public schools might have the opportunity of hearing the melodrama of "Hiawatha," which is to be given for adults the night of March 24 by the Business and Professional Women's Club, that the federation take charge of putting this entertainment on at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium the afternoon of March 24.

In order that the children might have the privilege of hearing this musical treat the federation members decided to accept the offer. Miss Alma Geiger of Glendale will be the pianist, Constance Balfour the soloist, and Mrs. W. R. Garrett the reader.

Discuss Various Matters.

Charles Marshall Is Glad to Reach Home

The irresistible attractions of Glendale are again attested to in the following statement which has been received by The Glendale Evening News from Charles Marshall of 525 South Central avenue, who has just returned from a trip to the middle west:

"After two weeks' travel in Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas, I certainly am glad to return to Glendale. At Omaha, Neb., I found a change in the temperature of 60 degrees within twenty-four hours, it being 55 degrees above zero with a heavy rain on Wednesday the 22d and on Thursday 5 degrees below zero. A Kansas City and at Abilene, Kan., of the Union Pacific, I ran into a heavy snow storm, the temperature being 5 degrees below zero. The snow drifted so deep that an auto could not navigate, so took a team and buggy. The buggy broke down in a snow drift. And, Oh, My! I certainly wished I was in Glendale. The people in the middle west are very anxious to hear about sunny California."

and returned to Los Angeles January 7, 1921. She said she did not notify Kennedy she was coming here. Twice she saw Kennedy on the street without speaking to him. On January 14, she testified, she telephoned to him. She said she asked him to return her letters and that he demanded that she see him. "I told him that it was not necessary that we should see each other and that he should give them to my friend, Mrs. Demont. I said, 'Won't you ever give me my letters?' and he said, 'No, I don't think I will. I want to see you and explain things.' I told him I would think it over and let him know," said Mrs. Obenchain.

TRADE ASSOCIATIONS' CONFERENCE CALLED BY HOOVER

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Problems of business stabilization and methods to prevent periods of industrial and commercial depression will be discussed at a conference of trade associations to be held here on March 21, Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced today. The conference will be attended by representatives of the leading trade associations and will be presided over by officials of the commerce and labor departments.

YOUTH SENTENCED TO DIE IS GRANTED WEEK'S STAY

WASHINGTON, March 9.—A week's stay of execution was granted today to John McHenry, the 22-year-old Connecticut youth, sentenced to die on the gallows tomorrow morning for the murder of an automobile accessories dealer and a policeman here. Chief Justice McCoy of the district supreme court granted the stay in order to give the boy more time to "prepare his soul" and his attorneys more time to try for a commutation to life sentence.

GENERAL PERSHING BATTLES AGAINST CUT IN ARMY

WASHINGTON, March 9.—General John J. Pershing, chief of staff, strode into congress hall today, donned his fighting togs and flayed congressional attempts to reduce Uncle Sam's army to less than 150,000 enlisted men and 13,000 officers. Unhesitatingly, General Pershing stepped into the thick of a bitter fight being waged by the house military affairs committee against the house appropriations committee's proposal to cut the army to 115,000 men and 11,000 officers.

SAYS NAVY WILL NEED 40,000 NEW RECRUITS NEXT YEAR

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Forty thousand recruits must be added to the United States navy within the next year to maintain its new peace time strength of 96,000 men, it was declared today by Secretary of the Navy Denby, appearing before the senate naval affairs committee. Denby testified that the enlistments of 41,900 men would expire in the next twelve months, but that half of them would reenlist. He added that 20,000 more would be discharged on physical or disciplinary grounds.

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW OF EX-KAISER IS CO-RESPONDENT

BERLIN, March 9.—Princess Eitel Frederich, daughter-in-law of the former kaiser, appeared in the Potsdam court today as co-respondent in a divorce suit brought by the Baroness Plettenberg. The princess confessed she had known the baron intimately for years and that their relations continued after her marriage to the ex-kaiser's son. Baron Plettenberg was an officer in a guards' regiment during the war. Prince Eitel Frederich is the second son of the former German emperor. He was married to Princess Sophie Charlotte, daughter of the Grand Duke Frederick August of Oldenburg, February 27, 1906. Despite her 42 years the princess is still a woman of great beauty.

GENOA CONFERENCE TO BE CALLED OFF, IS BELIEF

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Genoa economic conference scheduled to meet one month from tomorrow may again be postponed or called off entirely, as a result of the somewhat curt refusal of the United States to participate, according to views privately expressed today in official and diplomatic quarters here. The tenor of the American note to Italy, declining to participate, caused a profound surprise among diplomats in Washington. While it had been expected that the reply of this government would be unfavorable to acceptance, there had been no explanation that the American note would throw so much cold water on the whole proposition. Instead of fencing around with diplomatic phrases to soften the blow, the secretary of state took the bull by the horns and unhesitatingly branded the whole Genoa project "a conference of a political character in which the United States could not helpfully participate."

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

It Was Big Story, But—Problems For News Editor
And His Name Is Unknown
Who Is Newspaper Man?

By Gil A. Cowan

WELL, well. Big news of the day sometimes goes traveling through the grist without the proper attention.

In yesterday's issue of The Glendale Evening News an article was printed telling of a $50,000, two-story, brick block to be erected on the northwest corner of Brand boulevard and Doran street by W. H. Bullinger of Los Angeles who just acquired the property through the C. B. Guthrie agency.

Really, that is a big story, but compared with Dollar Day, a $600,000 high school and a highly important lecture delivered before the Tuesday afternoon club, it didn't get the place in the sun it would have received Monday or some other day.

The importance of the purchase lies in the fact that it further pulls the business section northward, something that Mr. Guthrie has long predicted. Then, too, Mr. Bullinger will use the rear of the lot for a bungalow court. That is economy.

Speaking of news values, Charles Chaplin gets three columns for suing another actor who uses his particular style of vagabond makeup. An $800,000 army graft plot gets a column and an important manslaughter case gets a paragraph.

How do they do it? Nobody knows. But the fact is that each news editor is looking for something new. It must be NEW and BIG if people are to read the paper. Charlie Chaplin is BIG because everybody, yes, even your Japanese gardener knows him.

One of the most unusual stories of the sea is printed in the morning's newspapers. A radio operator on a sinking ship—his name unknown—jested with death with the final message:

"We are sinking stern first. The boats are smashed. Can't hold out any longer. The skipper dictated that. He ought to know. Where did I put my hat? Sorry we can't wait for you; pressing business elsewhere. S—"

That S will stand for a lot of things. "So long," for the sentimental. "Save us" for the fearful. "Stranger than fiction" for the imaginative. And "Selah" for the humorist.

A newspaper man's status has been determined at last. According to the United States government, in a recent immigration case, it is this: "We find that a newspaper man is a member of a learned profession, and as such is not subject to the provisions of the contract labor law."

In this way one correspondent of an English paper, who was sent to this country to work under the direction of its American editors, established the status of one of the greatest professions in the country today.

But the real question still remains to be solved: "Who is a newspaper man?" Surely he is not a person fortunately or unfortunately found in the business without a knowledge of its business, editorial or mechanical problems. It takes no less than four years to become a printer. Surely a newspaperman, to speak of him in general terms, can learn his business in no less time.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE BY WAR MOTHERS WILL BE HELD

Funds for Organization Charity Work to Be Raised, Is Planned at Meeting

The local chapter of the War Mothers of America held its first "silver tea" of the season yesterday afternoon in conjunction with its regular semi-monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Ella Richardson of 317 North Brand boulevard.
The affair, which was conducted for the double purpose of launching a membership drive and also for raising funds for the organization's charity work, was reported a success in every way.

The program of the day, which was supplied by Mrs. Dora L. Gibson of the music department of the Glendale High school, consisted of a reading by Miss Doris Packer, two vocal selections, James H. Rogers' "At Parting" and Leoni's "Birth of the Morn," by Miss Frieda Potts, and a Scotch poem by Miss Mary Tate.

Miss Florence Pate was the accompanist for the various numbers. The program was enjoyed by all present, each number being enthusiastically applauded.

Offer of Co-operation
Following the program, Mrs. Chalmers Day, who is president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Glendale Post of the American Legion, made a brief talk, which she concluded by offering to co-operate with the War Mothers in any matters which might call for their assistance.

Following this, Mrs. E. D. Yard, who is chairman of the Welfare Committee of the Women's auxiliary, told a brief talk of the work that is being done in that organization.

At the short business session, which was held just before the entertainment, a complete report was made by Mrs. P. A. Wells regarding the recent "rummage sale," which was held last Saturday at the chapter's bungalow at 221 West Broadway.

Propose Another Sale
Following the report, which stated that the success of the affair had been more than anticipated by the members, it was decided to conduct another similar sale "somewhere on Brand boulevard" during the next few weeks.

A unanimous vote of thanks was extended to the numerous Glendale merchants and citizens who made donations of cash and merchandise for the sale, and also to Mrs. Wells and Mrs. F. W. Cowlin, who had charge of the affair.

South Maryland avenue, first vice-president, Gordon Clayton, 200 South Orange street, and Jim Henry Ilse, of 1010 East Windsor road, members of the social committee.

"The American Legion is recognized by the whole world in general as being the ex-service men's organization," declared Attorney James F. McBryde, of 103 A North Brand post. "Few organizations there are whose purposes are so unselfish."

RICH MERCHANT IS GUILTY

LONG BEACH, March 9.—Hugo Parshall, 54, said to be a wealthy Detroit merchant, who is stopping here at the Hotel Virginia, the most exclusive resort in Long Beach, was fined $1000 on two counts of bootlegging. He paid the fine rather than serve an alternative sentence of 360 days. Parshall was arrested in a sweeping roundup of more than twenty-five alleged liquor law violators. Police are mystified why a man of Parshall's station in life should engage in bootlegging activities.

LOCAL MAN GIVES INFORMATION IN MURDER PROBE

S. S. Beran Tells Police of the Threats Carpenter Makes to 'Get' Film Artist

Detectives seeking to clear up the mystery surrounding the slaying of William Desmond Taylor, film director, today investigated a "John Doe" angle revealed when S. S. Beran, a Glendale contractor, reported that a carpenter, whose name was withheld, had threatened to "get" a director because he suspected the film man of having won the love of his wife, according to an International News Service dispatch to The Glendale Evening News.

In their investigation of this phase of the mystery slaying, the detectives made a canvass of Los Angeles motion picture houses in an effort to locate a picture house at which the carpenter's wife had worked as an usher, before entering motion picture work.

The detectives hoped through the canvass to learn the name of the director supposed to have won the love of Mrs. John Doe. Whether or not the director was Taylor, was an unsettled question today.

When questioned by a reporter for The Glendale Evening News, Mr. Beran, who heads a contracting business at 305 South Brand, stated he had given the information to the Los Angeles authorities as indicated by the dispatch. He declined, for obvious reasons, to make known the name of the carpenter whose wife is said to have been won by a film man.

Axes and other edge tools have been manufactured at Hartford, Conn., for almost a century.

Legion Auxiliary in Interesting Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary of Post No. 127 has started the new year with interest and enthusiasm and anticipate a very active year. At the meeting Monday night, attendance was very good, and a number of new members were added to the roll. The newly-elected president, Mrs. Chalmers Day, presided at the business session.

Two new committees were appointed with Mrs. Don Packer, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Miss Waunita Emery, chairman of hospitality committee. Mrs. George Clayton will continue to serve as chairman of the hospital committee. A resolution was passed to assist the American Legion Post in the advance sale of tickets for the theatre benefit for their building fund which has been announced for next week.

A call has come from American Legion Post No. 8, in Los Angeles, asking for a committee from this unit to attend a meeting in Los Angeles next Monday, at which time a headquarters bureau will be established and plans made for the systematizing of the work of the auxiliaries, to the extent of assigning special territory to each unit, thus avoiding overlapping that has occurred frequently in the past. Committees from all units in the vicinity of Los Angeles will be present. Mrs. Chalmers Day, with one or more members, will represent the Glendale unit.

An unusually interesting program has been planned for the next meeting, which will take place March 20.

PARIS, March 9.—Germany between the time the armistice was signed and January 1, 1922, paid the allies 6,487,856,000 gold marks indemnity, or about $1,557,085,440. It is revealed in an official communication issued by the inter allied reparations commission.

This amount includes payments made both in money and goods. Germany still has more than $31,000,000,000 indemnity to pay, but it is understood that the German delegates will make an effort at the Genoa conference to have the reparations burden lightened if France allows the subject to be discussed.

"Every Musical Want Supplied"

Smith Knows Goods
He Sells at His New Broadway Store

"JOE" SMITH.

Jotham (Joe) Smith, proprietor of the Broadway Shoe Store at 312 East Broadway, a comparative newcomer to Glendale, hails from St. Louis, Mo., where he was employed as an inspector in one of the International Shoe Company's plants for three years.

Incidentally his father is superintendent in the factory which produces the Star Brand shoes, handled exclusively by the Broadway Shoe Store, and this gives Mr. Smith a thorough knowledge of the product which he sells.

After being brought up around shoe factories, Mr. Smith went to work for the A. G. Palmer Company at Lowell, Mass., in their retail store, where he gained four years' experience selling shoes in the heart of the shoe industry.

Mrs. Smith is assisting her husband in the conduct of the business here and lends her professional experience to the successful fitting of shoes on women and children. In fact, it is the children's trade that the Broadway Shoe store caters to.

Besides the Star Brand for men and women, they have the Pull Parrot shoes for the little folks which are also made in one of the forty-four factories operated by the International Shoe Company, the largest concern of its kind in the world, Mr. Smith says.

A large shipment of summer styles was received yesterday and the Broadway Shoe Store expects to make a large number of friends in the next few months, if the several weeks since the opening are any criterion.

LAST DAY

"The Silent Call"

Your last chance to see this wonderful picture. Over 4000 patrons saw it here Tuesday and Wednesday. It is one of the biggest motion pictures you will ever see. It has stood them out in Los Angeles for five weeks and is still doing it. COME EARLY.

DON'T MISS IT

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.—Advertisement.

HOPE TO PREVENT STRIKE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 9.—Officials of the United Mine Workers are "hopeful" that a strike of bituminous coal workers April 1, may yet be averted. But in the same breath they admit there is little ground for hope that suspension of operations will not ensue upon expiration of the present wage agreement three weeks hence.

'The Silent Call' at T. D. & L. Last Times

Today is the last time "The Silent Call" will be shown on the T. D. & L. theatre screen—so those who have not yet seen this most wonderful of pictures will have to hurry. "God's Country" is surely visualized in "The Silent Call."

The High Sierra country is used as a background for the story and its scenic grandeur is beyond comparison. In "The Silent Call" there is a tense and dramatic tale woven around a romance that strikes deep down in one's heart. "Strongheart," the marvelous dog, who is seen in the picture, literally draws one out of their seat with his almost human intelligence.

In real entertainment one can do no better than see "The Silent Call"—there are few pictures like it and it has that indelible stamp of greatness. Go early. The scenes, special comedy and Kinograms add to the program and make it one of the most entertaining.

'Flower of the North' Picture at Glendale

For scenic beauty, clever acting, intensely human story of life as it exists in the great open spaces, directed by one of the greatest outdoor directors in the motion picture game, "Flower of the North," the big James Oliver Curwood special which was shown at Glendale Theatre for the first time yesterday cannot be excelled.

The picture has everything to make it go over big. The cast second to none, headed by such well-known players as Henry B. Walthall of "Birth of a Nation" fame, and Pauline Starke, whose work in other Curwood stories has stamped her as an actress of note, is bound to stand out as one of the bright lights in motion pictures of the day.

A wealth of beautiful scenery found only in the mountains of northern Oregon forms a striking background for this rugged story of the north, taken at a period of the year in which the north is little understood—the summer season. It is refreshing to see a picture in this locale without the snowdrifts and deg sleds. It is a revelation to the average picturegoer to know that the climate in the far north is not all cold, and that barren desolation is not always on the face of nature, but at times flowers bloom, the grass grows and birds sing, just as in any other part of the world.

The prologue forms a striking contrast to the story itself. It shows the north in the early days when French chevaliers in picturesque garb fought for a fair lady's hand. The story itself is entirely modern, with a touch of the past in the customs still observed at the Fort o'God, which seem to take that particular spot out of the present day and carry it back to another generation. The other film attractions are good.

Some Publicity "Stunts"
Mr. Culver spoke briefly upon some of the novel publicity "stunts" undertaken by Culver City. Among these, he mentioned an exciting polo game on Fords, and a trip around the world for the person naming the municipal park, which caused 50,000 people to visit the community, at their own expense, and left the organization with a list of that many prospects.

The qualities of determination, stick-to-itiveness, and persistence, were paid high tribute by Mr. Culver. A five-minute address was made by City Manager W. H. Reeves, who expressed his appreciation of the spirit of co-operation shown by the realty board toward the city administration.

Municipal Realty License
Speaking about the question of a municipal realty license, Mr. Reeves said this had been suggested by the request of the plumbers for the imposition of a license which would keep outside competition from making frequent excursions into local business. He stated his opinion that a municipal real estate license not only could be imposed, but that it could be collected. He suggested that the city might find it desirable to supplement the present system of taxation with a certain amount of revenue derived from licenses.

"We are always glad to see you at the city hall," declared Mr. Reeves. "We like to hear your problems and co-operate with you in solving them."

C. D. Thom of the Glendale Realty company, 133 South Brand boulevard, presided as president of the board and announced the business session to be held in the Citizens' building next Wednesday night.

LEGION IN FAVOR OF PLAN
WASHINGTON, March 9.—The American Legion looks favorably on the revised soldier bonus plan, it was intimated here by Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion.

A specialty is being made of Chinese noodles, with Miss Wong doing the demonstrating. Bring the children is Mr. Smith's advice, and be prepared to take advantage of the bargains for the last three days of this week.

"Kid Essex" of Glendale fought Joe Reyna to a four-round draw. Joe Bonds of Los Angeles, who was booked as having battled with Jack Dempsey, Fred Fulton and "other good men," seemed to have no trouble defeating Ed Cummings of San Gabriel.

The most exciting event of the evening was a "Battle Royal" between six "darkies," all thrashing and yelling around in the ring at once.

Among Glendale fight fans, who attended the affair, were David Bisno of 119 North Brand boulevard, Ray C. Dosta and Charles H. Houck of The Sport Shop, 146 South Brand boulevard.

LAWYER KILLED BY FALL
BOSTON, Mass., March 9.—William Blake, a Boston attorney, leaped or fell from a window in his fifth floor apartment in the Hotel Wadsworth. He was immediately killed.
